

Mission Statement

Buddhist Pathways Prison Project is a California religious nonprofit corporation whose mission is to bring the core teachings of the historical Buddha of non-harming, meditation and wisdom into California prisons.

Through mindful awareness, incarcerated sangha members gain the wisdom that fosters durable self-transformation and insight into the inner conditions that led to incarceration.